Beginning Thursday, January 19th--Doors Open at 9 o'clock

A General Clearing Movement Throughout the Store of All Remnants of Piece Goods, Remnant Lots and Winter Wearing Apparel. These Sales have an importance far above that which can be expressed in terms of price alone. They bring merchandise tested by every measure of high quality, to meet immediate as well as future needs. Prices are far lower than possible the last few years. To take advantage fully of such sales means the economy which alone is permanent and worth while.

Attention Shrewd Shoppers and Particular Dressers

Coats, Suits, Dresses and Odd Lots of Wearing Apparel at RARE SAVINGS

This sale means much to every woman who reads this ad. The price cutting pencil has done its best work (or its worst), for prices have been pruned and clipped until not a vestige of the original profit is visible. In many instances we've cut into the original cost. It's a great opportunity to buy splendidly worthy winter garments and pay so little that you'll hardly miss the trifling sum.

The Sale of REMNANTS Immense---Literally "IMMENSE"

That's the word to apply to the Sale of Remnants. No other could apply to the values we give, the varieties of goods for your selection. There will be Crowds of buyers—"Buyers" not shoppers. The earlier you get here the better advantages you will have.

How are we able to hold such a sale—to give such values? It's easy enough with the know-how. Right after one Remnant Sale we begin preparing for another. We save all odd pieces, short lengths, ends of bolts—everything that is worth while and of some use to somebody, for the next sale.

Wool dress goods, wool suitings, coatings, shirtings, silks, white goods, dress cottons, linings, velvets, crepes, shirtings, lawns, ginghams, percales, flannels, outings muslins, sheeting, draperies, curtains, curtain laces, dress trimmings, laces, embroideries, ribbons and other remnants.

The unique position attained by our Semi-Annual Remnant Sales as the foremost merchandising event in this country has been gained solely on the ground of Value Giving. Beginning in a modest way years ago, these sales have each year become more widely known and more widely patronized.
